The Invisible War Rages On

Esther 2:19 – 3:15

9/27/2020

Introduction: It is great when a war on earth ends, but for the child of God, the real war with evil never ends

Applications:

- As God's People, We are Always Targets
- As God's People, We Fail Constantly, But God Can Still Use Us
- As God's People, We Are Not Exempt From Persecution
- As God's People, We Can Never Be Defeated

Conclusion: Satan was defeated at the Cross. However, he still seeks to destroy. As God's people, we have to stay strong and continue fighting the war. Remember, God is in control!
