

A graphic with a dark, textured background of water droplets and ripples. The text "TRIUMPH & TRAGEDY" is at the top in a white, serif font. Below it, "The Story of Life in a Broken World" is written in a larger, bold, white, serif font. At the bottom, "The Book of Judges" is written in a smaller, white, serif font.

TRIUMPH & TRAGEDY
The Story of Life in a Broken World
The Book of Judges

Triumph & Tragedy

God is Working without Telling Us Everything

Judges 14

INTRODUCTION

- God is not obligated to tell us what He is doing.
- God has the power to use the imperfect.
- God's plan and purpose will always be carried out.
- God is not limited by weak and inferior people.
- God is in the little as well as the big.

APPLICATIONS / REMINDERS

- God doesn't always do things the way we think He should.
- God isn't finished when it looks like it's all over.
- God can and will work through us even in our weakness.
- God is always working for His people even in the smallest ways.
- God is the only deliverer deserving of our life and love and obedience.

CONCLUSION